

WELLSPRING CANCER SUPPORT

AT WELLSPRING ODETTE HOUSE
LOCATED IN TORONTO

Coming out with Cancer: A Discussion of the LGBTQ Experience of Coping with Cancer

Wednesday, April 15 6:00 pm - 8:00 pm
at Wellspring Odette House
81 Wellesley Street East
Free of Charge.

Please join us for an informative discussion of the issues facing Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, Transgender, and Queer individuals coping with cancer.

A screening of "Coming Out Again: Lesbians Speaking Out About Cancer" will take place, followed by a discussion of the themes and challenges emerging from the film. All are encouraged to attend!

For more information, please contact:
416.961.1928, ext. 224

www.wellspring.ca

A Lifeline to Cancer Support

Wellspring is a network of centres that offer support, coping skills and informational programs to cancer patients and their loved ones at no charge and without referral.